John Stephens Antiques' Dupree French Bed Company imports a range of new bed frames from a small boutique west of Paris.

Dupree beds are made from European beech, the frames come in a variety of styles and sizes, and are finished with paint or polish. Slat kits and upholstery are arranged through John Stephens Antiques, with fabric supplied by the customer.

The Dupree bed styles available include Demi-Corbeille, Droit, Crosse, Louis XVI and Directoire. Each style has its own distinct shape and detailing, with cresting and side rails beautifully carved in a 'fleur' (flower) or 'coquille' (seashell) design.

Louis XV Style Bombe
POA

Both designs come in standard dimensions which can be modified if required.

Cabinets can be finished in either a paint or polish.
Paint finishes can be arranged in any colour. We offer colour match to existing pieces.
